Missing- New Chestnut Brown
UGGS Size 7 on a Tuesday 5-6:45

Even though our security system has deterred theft, it is still important that students leave their valuables home or lock them in the lockers we have provided for you upstairs.

Performing Arts cannot be responsible for lost or stolen items.

Master CARD/Visa Surcharges

We have recently learned through Channel 2's report that it is against NYS laws to charge consumers surcharges on credit sales. We have done so unknowingly the last 5 months by accepting credit and charging 2% surcharges for non-sale items (tuition & costumes- NEVER ON STORE MERCHANDISE.) Because we are now informed we have the responsibility to make immediate changes. Therefore Performing Arts regrets that it can no longer accept credit card payments in the store for tuition/costume payments.

STUDIO B DANCE & FITNESS SUPPLIES is a separate business from the Performing Arts Dance Academy with a separate DBA, and should remain separate. We are sorry for the inconvenience to the handful of families who have enjoyed this payment option. As always, we will continue to accept checks and cash payments.

MARCH 2010

Parent Observation is March 22nd - 27th

Sewing Volunteers will be needed soon, as costumes have begun to arrive. Please sign your name on the kiosk list if you would be willing to help make minor adjustments to some costumes. Let us know on the sign up sheet if you have a serge machine which is always helpful & needed. Thanks in advance!
